

WALSINGHAM CE VA PRIMARY SCHOOL NEWSLETTER – 16TH DECEMBER 2022

Wishing you all a very merry Christmas and a happy New Year

Hedgehogs

Thank you to everyone for your part in such a fantastic Autumn term. We are so proud of the Hedgehogs and all their achievements, especially their performance at the church on Thursday. It's not easy to stand up in front of an audience and lots of them may not have done it before because of all the Covid interruptions. Have a wonderful Christmas break with your families and we look forward to seeing you again in January.

Warriors

The Warriors have been practicing very hard for the nativity play over the last couple of weeks. The children have remembered all the words and actions for the songs and on top of that, they have also learnt all their individual lines. I am so proud of them and their extraordinary effort! Well done guys!

NCC LEAFLET:

Please find attached a leaflet which Norfolk County Council has asked us to circulate to all parents.

FAREWELL AND WELCOME:

As Mrs Money goes on her maternity leave, we wish her all the very best for her new arrival in January! We have enjoyed having Mr Latta visiting us this week and we look forward to welcoming him properly in January.

NEW MENU:

Please find attached the new dinner menu for next term.
